

KCBC Construction and Infrastructure Working Group Meeting Summary

Date: 5 May, 2021

Location: Virtual

Moderator:

- ❖ Tatyana Domilovskaya, Regional Director, CERBA Vancouver

Participants:

- ❖ Honourable Stockwell Day, Former Minister of International Trade Canada
- ❖ Galymzhan Mataev, Official representative of Kazakh Invest in US and Canada
- ❖ Michael Geller, Vancouver Architect and Principal of the Center for Sustainable Development at Simon Fraser University (Vancouver, BC)
- ❖ Warren Senkowski, Trade commissioner, Pacific Regional Office, Global Affairs Canada
- ❖ Margaret Skok, Former Ambassador of Canada to the Republic of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic and Tajikistan, Senior Fellow Carleton University/NPSIA
- ❖ Shokan Omarov, First Secretaire of Kazakhstan Embassy to Canada
- ❖ Taskyn Koshman, Regional Director, CERBA Kazakhstan, KCBC Coordinator

Main topics covered by the WG:

- ❖ Agreed to investigate extended opportunities for development collaboration in broader areas of Construction Sector, involving modern subjects such as Smart Cities and advanced building materials.
- ❖ Agreed to follow up with the Embassy of Kazakhstan to Canada about conveying of information on opportunities to formally transfer Canadian WF technology and create a set of National building regulations that would establish relevant Kazakhstan building standards.